

THE ORANGEBURG NEWS,
PUBLISHED
EVERY SATURDAY MORNING
AT
Orangeburg, S. C.
Terms: $2 00 per Annum, in Advance.
During the Spring and Fall Seasons, Extra Copies of the ORANGEBURG NEWS will be circulated for the benefit of our ADVERTISING PATRONS.
Contract Advertisements inserted on the most Liberal Terms.
Address
SAMUEL DIBBLE,
Editor "Orangeburg News,"
Orangeburg, S. C.

Religious.
We are requested to announce that Rev. S. B. Sawyer will perform Divine Service (D. V.) at the Baptist Church in this place, to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock.

In Memoriam.
We would respectfully request the officers of Hagood's 1st Regiment S. C. V. to furnish statistics of the casualties in their respective commands to this office at their earliest convenience. We have not the time to communicate individually with each officer, and take this method of making a general request.

Departure of Troops.
The small garrison which was stationed at this place, left on Tuesday last for some other point, and Orangeburg is, temporarily, garrisoned only by the Military Bill.

State Taxes.
We publish in this issue, on our fourth page, the State Tax Act, for the information of our readers, who are about to be called upon for their taxes.

Additional Villainy.
We understand that Wm. Rudd, (so-called) of whose departure we gave notice last week, went to Charleston, and made his first business call on Messrs. E. H. Rodgers & Co., personating Mr. Emanuel Rickenbaker who, he knew, had just made a shipment of cotton to Messrs. E. H. R. & Co., and in that character obtained an advance of $150, upon the consignment; after which, RUDD was non inventus.

New Books.
We are glad to see that our enterprising fellow-citizen of Branchville, Mr. John B. Morrow, the agent of "Simms' War Poetry of the South" and also of "Lollards' History of the War," is meeting with much success in disposing of the above works. This is as it should be. For the South should maintain its own literature, in preference to the trashy productions of Northern Radicals on the subject of the late struggle for independence. Mr. M. will be in Orangeburg on public days, and will fill orders for the books mentioned with despatch.

New Advertisements.
See Card of Dr. F. FENNER in another column.
We would call attention to the advertisement of Mr. THOMAS RAY, of a fine Grist Mill worked by horse power for sale.

See Notice of Estate Sale of ELIZABETH RICKENBAKER, deceased; Colonel D. R. BARTON, Administrator.
See Administrator's Notice, Estate of J. H. WOLFE, deceased; J. H. INABINET, Administrator.

See Commissioner's Notice in regard to lost deed of conveyance to LEVI S. TYLER, Trustee.

Mrs. M. E. HALL has received a new and well assorted Stock of Spring Millinery Goods, of the latest styles and fashions.
We take pleasure in calling notice to the advertisement of our friends Messrs. W. E. WILLIAMS & Co., in our columns. Their well selected stock of Family Groceries, cannot fail to afford complete satisfaction to all who favor them with a call.

Attention is invited to the fresh arrivals of Corn Starch, Flavoring Essences, and other articles desirable to housekeepers at the Drug Store of Dr. E. J. OLIVEROS, on Main-street.

Mr. GEORGE W. STURGEON, Assistant Assessor of the U. S. Internal Revenue, announces in our column certain important changes in the Revenue Law, which our readers will find it to their advantage to acquaint themselves with, and act accordingly.

Our readers, in looking over our advertising columns, will notice the liberal bargains offered by M. McMASTER to all customers, at the Brick Store, on Russell Street.

Attention is called to the notice of Dr. ALTMAS J. WOLFE, as a practicing physician in this place.

Messrs. T. A. JEFFORDS & Co., Main Street, will exchange Corn and Flour for Rough Rice, giving the highest market price for the Rice and will guarantee to sell the Corn and Flour as low as they can be had in Orangeburg.

Grand Presentation Concert.
The ladies of Baltimore with their usual active benevolence have inaugurated a Grand Presentation Concert in aid of the Southern Orphan Association, to be given at the Maryland Institute, at Baltimore, on the 30th day of April next. There are to be issued 500,000 tickets and each ticket will draw a prize. The prizes are various, from an Engraving up to elegant Mansions and Farms. The tickets are only one dollar each, and the cause is one which commends itself to the sympathy of the Southern people. Messrs. CHARLES S. BULL & Co., are the agents for their sale in this place.

Consignees per South Carolina Railroad From 8th to 14th Inclusive.

THE SOUTHERN
DRUG STORE!

For the liberal patronage which I have thus far received from the citizens of Orangeburg District and the confidence shown in me by very numerous friends, I take the opportunity of expressing my sincere gratitude in this, the first issue of the "ORANGEBURG NEWS." The encouragement of past patronage and kindness induces a strong faith in future success, and, while thanking my friends for past favors, I can assure them that nothing will be left undone to deserve their continuing patronage. My Store will be essentially a DRUG STORE; in it will be kept such Drugs and Medicines alone, as I will warrant Genuine and Pure. I have arranged to supply my customers with Medicines of the very best quality afforded in the market. I avoid all cheap useless articles, and yet my prices shall be as reasonable for VALUABLE, GOOD, FRESH MEDICINES as any body's.
I invite the PHYSICIANS of the District to call and examine for themselves. They are judges to whose opinions I submit. Send your Orders and they will be filled to your satisfaction. To the Citizens of my native District who have tried me, I say don't give me up, try me a little longer, and you'll not regret it—you'll find I'll stand a long race, as well as a short one; and your faith in me shall not be misplaced. To those who have not yet tried me, now is your time to begin. As before, if you want good, pure, family MEDICINES, such as Laudanum, Paragoric, Castor Oil, Sweet Oil, Epsom Salts, Glauber Salts, Cream Tartar, Carb. Soda, &c., &c., or Dye Stuffs and Paints, and Brushes, Concentrated Lye, &c., or even, Patent Medicines of all kinds. Now, just call at that Little Store on Main-Street, and you will be sure to get what you want.

This Drug Store looks small, but your surprise will be great when you enter to find how appearances deceive, and what a quantity of good things are within this same Little Store.
B. M. SHULER,
Druggist.
